International Affairs Strategic Plan for AUT in 2021

Reaching under 200 rank within QS classification in three years

Providing high-quality educational and research services for international students and creating appropriate predisposition for international academic and industrial cooperation.

Avoiding dissipation in structuring and applying force and spending money in various cases belong to this unit's faultless principles

Practically glorifying foreign and citizen students is one of this unit's flawless principles

The international unit is committed to the AUT position when starting every new project. This subject prevents any high-income activity becoming an international university changing the university branding of the university atmosphere and active university attendance

- Performing the project of providing university brand booklet
- Content production (digital networking) in foreign languages
- Creating a website in English and Arabic languages compatible with international standards
- Preparing the university brochure and movie in English, Arabic and updating them permanently
- Boosting foreign languages in the university by presenting the courses in English and students and staff training
- Using university satellite campuses as Regional Hub to hold common periods.

1.1) the income level as the result of the international

having international students from different nations

Creating needed hardware infrastructures for attendance of the international students in the university. Creating required software infrastructures for attendance of the international students in the university, devoting academic incentives for the international students.

- Preparing the required procedures and regulations for the international students' attendance in the university
- Creating and expanding international language university centers to train English, Persian languages
- Special planning for the essential international dormitory atmospheres for the students
- Cooperating with the students' recruitment agencies to recruit individual and group students
- Content production in terms of competitive educational advantages in AUT
- Devoting incentive educational funds for the international students
- holding cultural events for the non-Iranian students

1.1) the concluded agreements number. 1.2) the students work to study in possessing extensive strategic cooperation with foreign universities prioritizing foreign partner countries to start or expand cooperation, optimizing the current activities to stop or reinforce them to create strategic relationships with the university of the target

- Searching and investigating the peer universities abroad and prioritizing them in terms of efficiency of international scientific activities
- Identifying the target countries confirming upstream documents
- Identifying the advanced European-American countries
- Identifying the Persian-speaking muslin countries
- Providing the list of international scientific activities for every country group relevant to the scientific events
- Providing the activity list for the samelevel or with low-quality universities
- Providing the activity list for the advanced universities
- Providing the activity list for the progressive challengeable universities
- Reviewing signed agreements so far to boost stopped and prioritized cases
- Checking all the available contracts and dividing them to stop and reinforcement
- Reviewing activities list for reinforcement list agreements
- Targeting to start a strategic relationship with the peer country or university
- Providing the list of the peer universities and prone to strategic cooperation
- Providing the list of strategic activities with strategic universities and making relationships such as common period, professors and students relationship. research opportunities, summer school, students common guidance, etc.
- Creating international ambassadors' group for strategic cooperation
- ✓ Providing the country lists that need international ambassadors group
- Providing the professors' list of international ambassadors group
- Providing the duties and responsibilities of international ambassadors

Including professors' and students' international activities

Vision

Mission

Values

Goals

Strategies

Plan

International scientific network selection and compatibility, promoting the opportunity to have international cooperation with financial support, creating essential academic cooperation, and creating a system to inform the professors and students about the opportunities.

- Creating university, national, and international financial resources for the international activities
- International triple grants
- National financial resources from international activities
- European Union and country-based grants
- Creating an information network of foreign peers Creating a network of AUT graduates
- Creating a network of German professors (about their research fields)
- Creating a network of Iranians residing abroad
- Creating the opportunity to hold compatibility sessions between the citizen and foreign professors
- Supporting compatibility workshops in the
- Helping to hold virtual compatibility workshops
- Supporting the AUT professors to participate in conferences and study opportunities Providing professors with the required incentives.
- to do international activities
- Devoting educational and research incentives
- Dedicating incentive to change the positions and promotion
- Allotting encouragement to promote faculty
- Providing essential administrative facilities for creating international activities
- Providing required regulations for professors' and students' educational and research
- Doing necessary administrative-incentive procedures and supports from moving
- Informing the professors about profitable international individual activities
- Prioritizing the activities according to the target university such as common guidance, visiting professor, common research project, etc.

1.1) increasing the number of international students. 1.2) increasing the foreign collaborative professors.

Indicators

1.1) increasing the common graduate projects. 1.2) increasing university students' international experience, including opportunity studies, internship, transitional, and international